

Sixth International Protégé Workshop

Monday 7th - Wednesday 9th, July 2003
Manchester, England

DRAFT WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

		Monday 7th	Tuesday 8th	Wednesday 9th
8	:00
	:30	Coffee, Welcome and Introductions	Coffee	Coffee
9	:00	The Protégé Project & Protégé-2000: Past, Present and Future - Mark Musen / Ray Fergerson - Stanford University, USA	Editing Semantic Web (OWL) Ontologies with Protégé - Holger Knublauch - Stanford University, USA
	:30
10	:00	Managing Multiple Ontologies in Protégé - Natalya Fridman Noy - Stanford University, USA	Mapping Between Knowledge Bases - Monica Crubézy - Stanford University, USA
	:30	BREAK	BREAK
11	:00	Problem-Solving Methods in Protégé (a.k.a the PSM Tab) - Monica Crubézy - Stanford University, USA	Ontology Versioning in Protégé - Natalya Fridman Noy - Stanford University, USA
	:30	Using The Graph Widget for Fun & Profit - Jennifer Vendetti - Stanford University, USA	Protégé 2.0: System Architecture - Ray Fergerson - Stanford University, USA
12	:00	Discussion Session & Lunch	Discussion Session & Lunch	Discussion Session & Lunch
	:30
1	:00	Protégé 2.0: Features and Fixes - Ray Fergerson - Stanford University, USA	Sielan: Local Area Network Design Expert System - Alberto González Ramírez / Caroll Zuleima Joaquín Trujillo - University of Cauca, Colombia
	:30
2	:00	Protégé and Software Technology: UML & XLL Backends - Holger Knublauch - Stanford University, USA	Using Protégé to Bridge the Terminology/ Information Model Boundary - Harold R. Solbrig / Christopher G. Chute - Mayo Clinic, USA	Future Directions & Open Issues - Ray Fergerson - Stanford University, USA
	:30	BREAK	BREAK
3	:00		JessTab: Using Jess together with Protégé - Henrik Eriksson - Linköping University, Sweden
	:30
4	:00
	:30
5	:00
	:30

Back to Workshop Home Page